Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 9) offered to take anyone to eat in a restaurant. They never bring a gift when they arrive or send a thank you letter when they get home.

We have had them here twice—for six weeks at a time and today we received a letter saying they will be with us for Christmas. I am ready to flip my wig. What can we do? —BITTERLY RESENTFUL

Dear Bitterly: If you allow these parasites to invade your home a third time you deserve them.

Write the free-loaders and tell them you are not up to having guests this year and that you will let them know when the situation changes.

Dear Ann Landers: I have had two children out of wedlock. My girl is three and my boy is two. I am now happily married and my husband is a wonderful father to the children. He has never once thrown my past up to me.

We can't afford to have the children's name changed legally right now because we owe a lot of bills and are trying to get our credit rating back in good shape.

The children have never known any father but the one they have now. I would hate to tell them about my life. But what will I say when they ask me why their last name is not the same as mine? Please advise me. —ESTELLA

Dear Estella: Your children's last name should have been changed along with yours the day you married—at least socially. It costs nothing to call your children by your husband's name, and I hope you will begin to do so right now. You can have the legal changes made later.

Parents are people—they can be right and they can be wrong. To help understand their viewpoint and to promote harmony at home, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 30 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For a Very Special kind of Woman

Zeigler's just for a very special kind of woman...the woman who's concerned enough about her appearance to want to give her face the best possible care.

For the Zeigler Facial Exerciser is a highly-specialized electronic unit, developed under medical supervision, only after years of careful research. Delicately sensitive, it gently exercises facial muscles and helps to stimulate facial circulation. Again and again, its regular use has proved its effectiveness to many discriminating women...lifting sagging facial contours resulting from the normal processes of aging...diminishing fine lines and fine wrinkles.

If you're a woman who really cares about her facial appearance, don't wait another day to see for yourself what Zeigler can do. For a free demonstration in your home without obligation, call 320-2631, or write:
